I. Introduction

As announced in the contract notice 2018/S 078-173082 of 21 of April of 2018, the European Central Bank (ECB) is seeking interested parties through this Call to express interest for participating in a procurement procedure on design and delivery of the Women's Leadership Programme ("the Programme") - PRO-003914.

1. Background

The European Central Bank (ECB) is the central bank of the 19 European Union countries which have adopted the euro. The ECB's main task is to maintain price stability in the euro area and to preserve the purchasing power of the single currency. The ECB is an official EU institution at the heart of the Eurosystem as well as the Single Supervisory Mechanism for banking supervision.

The ECB is committed to fostering diversity on an ongoing basis, in recognition of the fact that the diversity of its people positively contributes to its success as an institution. Its Gender Diversity Action Plan, endorsed by the Executive Board in June 2013, put forward a set of initiatives to achieve more career parity for females and males. Since 2014, the ECB has been running with an external provider a Women's Leadership Programme (WLP) for female managers and experts which will finish in 2018.

Thus, the ECB is looking for a provider (through this procurement) to develop and deliver a tailor-made Women's Leadership Programme for the following target groups:

- New participants - Women (e.g. managers, advisers, professional staff) who have not participated in the current Women's Leadership Programme - approx. 350 participants
- Alumni - Women who have participated in the current WLP (2014-2018) - approx. 100 participants
- Senior female leaders - approx. 15 – 30 participants

The purpose of the Programme is to further support women to grow their professional capabilities, by developing greater confidence and a better understanding of their leadership style. It is also important for participants to learn and practice tested techniques to overcome the unique challenges faced by women in business.

To accommodate participants, the Programme will be regularly offered throughout the year and for the duration of the contract.

More particularly, the selected provider is expected to:

- a) Design and develop a tailored Programme for each of the groups (including analysis of the profile and needs of the target groups);
- b) Deliver seminars, workshops, networking events, key-note speeches and coaching sessions (according to the needs of the target groups); and
- c) Organise the logistics (e.g. finding a suitable venue, managing bookings, settling and paying relevant invoices, transport and other administrative tasks related to the smooth operation of the Programme e.g. registrations) for the seminars that will take place outside the ECB premises in the vicinity of the Rhine-Main area.

The envisaged starting date of the contract is in the last quarter of 2018, for a duration of 3 years with a possible renewal for an additional year. We envisage for the Programme to be up and running as of the beginning of 2019.

The successful interested parties will receive the tender documentation with the detailed specifications of the Programme.

2. Legal framework
