

Taking stock: The ECB strategy review and current challenges for monetary policy

OMFIF virtual panel

Philip R. Lane
Member of the Executive Board of the ECB

Scope

Within its mandate

Covers all aspects of the ECB's monetary policy

Based on thorough analysis and open minds

Expert audiences (e.g., academics, analysts), European Parliament, civil society organisations, individual citizens, including staff members

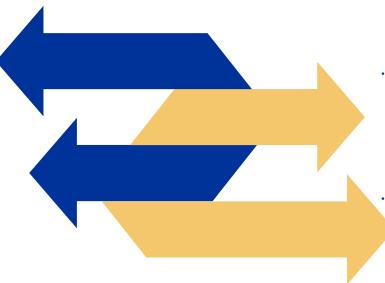

Engaging with all our stakeholders

Eurosystem holds various in-reach and outreach events

ECB and NCBs listen in various formats

Process and time frame

- Review started early 2020, then had to be delayed because of COVID-19 pandemic
- Activities resumed last summer
- Strategy review is expected to conclude in second half of 2021
- Several debates took place already, but the general mode is still one of listening and discussing

- Review process split into a sequence of debates within the Governing Council, supported by seminars prepared by ECB staff and 13 Eurosystem workstreams
 - All topics need to be thoroughly and coherently discussed before any conclusions can be drawn and communicated

Governing Council seminars and Eurosystem workstreams

Stocktaking

Inflation measurement and trends

Price stability objective

Monetary policy instruments

Climate change and monetary policy

Financial stability

Economic and monetary analysis

Monetary policy communications

Monetary-fiscal policy interactions

Employment

Eurosystem workstreams