Introduction

Under Article 10(b) of the Conditions of Employment and Article 14(a) of the Conditions of Short- Term Employment, a security clearance is mandatory for selected candidates prior to taking up appointment at the ECB.

Privacy Statement

- (a) Personal data that is the subject of the security clearance file is protected by Regulation (EC) No45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data, as well as by legal instruments adopted by the ECB in order to implement this Regulation.
 - (b) Personal data contained in the security clearance file will be used for the purpose of issuing a security clearance and in cases of suspected fraud for legal proceedings, including disciplinary and internal administrative inquiries procedures. The ECB may disclose personal data to its authorised staff, including all members of the panel which reviews the data subject's security clearance file and relevant staff conducting the disciplinary and internal administrative inquiries procedures. The personal data collected in the course of security clearance will not be transferred to any EU institution or body, Member State or third country. The Head of the ECB's Security and Safety Division, or the persons to whom authority to do so has been delegated, may contact the relevant authorities to verify the accuracy, authenticity, consistency or comprehensiveness of any document provided by you in order to obtain the security clearance.
 - (c) If you wish to access your security clearance file or request rectification of errors or omissions, please contact the Head of the ECB's Security Division (Sonnenmannstrasse 20, D-60314 Frankfurt/Main, Tel. +49 69 1344 4371 or by e-mail to securityclearance@ecb.europa.eu).
 - (d) You may provide the ECB with updated certificates of criminal record at any time throughout your employment relationship with the ECB. The ECB will include updated certificates in the security clearance file and will keep previous certificates of criminal record only until a decision related to the previous certificate has become final.
 - (e) The ECB will retain the security clearance file for the period of time that you have an employment, contractual or other engagements with the ECB until one year following expiry or termination of the employment or other engagements with the ECB. For unescorted visitors, the ECB will retain the security clearance file for one year following your last date of access to the ECB. After the retention period, the Head of the ECB's Security and Safety Division will arrange for the security clearance file to be destroyed.
 - (f) In the case of dispute, individuals shall be entitled to have recourse to the European Data Protection Supervisor at any time.

Self-Declaration
