Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your letter and for expressing your interest in discussing the digital euro at further length. Your engagement in and support for this project are greatly appreciated and crucial to its continued progress and success.

I would like to extend the opportunity for you to engage with my esteemed colleagues Piero Cipollone, Member of the European Central Bank's Executive Board, and Evelien Witlox, Director of the digital euro project. Both are deeply involved in the digital euro and are well positioned to provide valuable insights and discuss with you your perspectives on the project.

It would be our pleasure to host you at the ECB in Frankfurt for an in-person discussion. We will get in touch with you separately regarding a possible date for this meeting. Alternatively, should it be more convenient for you, we can arrange a virtual meeting via Microsoft Teams.

Thank you, once again, for your interest in the digital euro and for contributing to this important initiative.

Yours faithfully,
