

Terms and Conditions

Girls' IT Bootcamp is organised by the European Central Bank (ECB) for primary and secondary school students. The goal of the bootcamp is to encourage school age girls to pursue careers in IT, and to educate them on simple coding principles and the IT world within the ECB.

The bootcamp is subject to the terms and conditions published on the www.ecb.europa.eu. The bootcamp is open to female primary and secondary school students aged between 9 and 17 years at the time of registration, who can communicate (write/read) in English. No previous experience in or knowledge of coding is needed. The maximum number of the participants in the bootcamp is 24. Places will be offered to those who meet the conditions above on a first-come, first-served basis. The registration will be open until 15 May until 23.59 CET'.

The bootcamp run over three consecutive days, from 31 May to 2 June 2022, in the ECB, Frankfurt am Main, Germany. The first two days will consist of programming workshops and the third day consist of activities and tours of the ECB.

The parents of students who wish to participate in the bootcamp, must send the documents listed below with all the required information to it_bootcamp@ecb.europa.eu

1. Filled in and signed Registration form;
2. Filled in and signed Terms and Conditions form;
3. Filled in and signed Personal data consent for video and photography for Minors;
4. Filled in and signed contact tracing form – will be physically given to participants on the day of event before entering the ECB building.

Participation in the bootcamp is subject to acceptance of the terms and conditions, the acceptance of the privacy statement, and registration of the student's personal data in the Registration form. All data must be valid at the time of registration on this website. By entering this information, participants' parents agree to the publication of the photos and videos of the participants on the ECB's website and/or to the announcement of those names at public events. Participants may be photographed and/or filmed at the event and the resulting photos/videos may be published on the internet, on social media or in other media.

Participants' parents may choose to allow the ECB to contact them at a later date by email in order to inform them about future events. The ECB is not responsible for incomplete, incorrectly submitted, or delayed registrations.

All participants will be awarded certificates and gifts physically at this event. All participants must respect the ECB House Rules and accompanying temporary instructions which apply during the COVID-19 pandemic which can be found on the ECB's website.

The ECB reserves the right to postpone, interrupt or cancel the bootcamp partially or entirely. In this case, the ECB will not be held liable for any loss or damage that may arise from the postponement, interruption, or cancellation.

Privacy Statement

Data protection legal framework applicable to the European Central Bank (ECB)

All personal data provided by participants and their parents will be processed in accordance with EU data protection laws, in particular Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data and subsequent legislation implementing these legal instruments.

What personal data are we processing?

The ECB processes the information that participants and their parents provide in the registration form at the time of registration such as name, surname, school name, address of the school, contact number and e-mail address, age, etc..

The ECB also processes photos and videos of the participants taken during the bootcamp.

Who is responsible for the processing of personal data?

The ECB is the data controller and is responsible for processing the personal data provided.

Who will receive the personal data?

Personal data will be received by ECB. Only the first name of the participants will be given to external programming instructors during the programming workshops, for the purpose of conducting the workshops.

Personal data collected by the registration form will also be transferred to the ECB. Any further processing of the personal data by the ECB is subject to the guarantees provided in the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

Photos and short video recordings of the participants taken during the bootcamp may be published by the ECB on the ECB website, and/or by other EU institutions, and/or by the ECB's partners, as well as on social media channels such as Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and LinkedIn.

Why are we processing your personal data and what is the legal basis for the processing?

All the participants' data will be added to a excel sheet stored in the ECB's document management system. All personal data are collected and processed for the purposes of managing the bootcamp, accessing event-related information, ranking the participants, awarding the certificates, and contacting the participants' parents with relevant information.

For how long do we keep personal data?

Personal data (such as name, surname, school name, address of the school, email address, mobile number) provided in the registration form will be kept by ECB for 10 years, counting from the day on which the personal data were given.

As a rule, the ECB will keep photos and videos (including portraits) taken during the event for 5 years, counting from the day on which the personal data were obtained. However, such data may also be stored by the ECB for longer periods for archiving purposes.

Personal data which is posted social media will be kept for as long as the social media channels indicate in their privacy statements.

Participants' rights

Participants have the right to access and rectify their personal data, to restrict the processing of the data and, under certain conditions, to ask for data to be deleted. Depending on the specifics of the data processing operation, participants may also have the right to data portability and to object to their data being processed.

Participants may exercise their rights or ask for clarification regarding the rules relating to personal data by contacting ECB Data Protection Officer (dpo@ecb.europa.eu).

Participants have the right of recourse to the European Data Protection Authority (CNPD), as supervisory authority, regarding the processing of your personal data.

Use of cookies

Cookies are small bits of data sent by a website server to the browser of your computer and then stored on your hard drive. The browser informs the server when you next visit that particular website. Cookies help us to store user preferences and track usage trends on an aggregate basis. Servers automatically record information that your browser sends whenever you visit a website. These server logs may include information such as the date and time of your visit, your internet protocol address, browser type, browser language, browser screen size, and one or more cookies that identify your browser. The information the ECB collects from this website (including via Google Analytics) is used only to compile statistics, on an aggregate basis, on the usage of this website.

By ticking this box parents/legal guardians give their consent for their and their children's personal data to be processed, for their children to be in the ECB for three days without their presence, and for photos and videos from the bootcamp to be published.

Participants may withdraw their consent at any time by contacting the ECB Data Protection Officer (dpo@ecb.europa.eu). Future processing of their personal data will stop once a participant has withdrawn their consent, but prior processing will remain lawful.

©2022 European Central Bank

Date/Signature (Parent / Legal guardian)