III.1) Conditions relating to the contract
III.1.1) Deposits and guarantees required:
As stated in the tendering documents which will be sent to the short-listed candidates.
III.1.2) Main terms of financing and payment and/or reference to the relevant provisions:
As stated in the tendering documents which will be sent to the short-listed candidates.

III.1.3) Legal form to be taken by the grouping of suppliers, contractors or service providers to whom the contract is awarded:
Consortia: admitted.
Grouping of contractors: admitted. In case of award to a group of contractors, the awarding authority may require the formal constitution of a consortium.
Subcontracting: admitted. However the major part of the service provided shall be performed by the applicant. Subcontractors must comply with the same exclusion/selection criteria as the contractor. The contractors must clearly indicate in their applications which parts of the requested supplies/services will be subcontracted.

III.2) Conditions for participation:
Applicants shall draw up their application by filling in an ad-hoc questionnaire, which is provided upon request for participation to the contact address mentioned in paragraph I.3 above and whose format and instructions must be strictly observed. Any application which does not observe these provisions will be automatically eliminated.
III.2.1) Information concerning the personal situation of the contractor, supplier or service provider and information and formalities necessary for the evaluation of the minimum economic, financial and technical capacity required:

Applicants should note that failure to send sufficient information about the points mentioned below (and requested in the standard questionnaire) may result in their application being rejected. In case of grouping, the information must be provided for each member of the group.

III.2.1.1) Legal position - means of proof required:

Applicants will be excluded from taking part in this contract if:

1. they are bankrupt or being wound up, are having their affairs administered by the courts, have entered into an arrangement with creditors, have suspended business activities, are the subject of proceedings concerning those matters, or are in any analogous situation arising from a similar procedure provided for in national legislation or regulations;
2. they have been convicted of an offence concerning their professional conduct by a judgment which has the force of res judicata;
3. they have been guilty of grave professional misconduct proven by any means which the contracting authority can justify;
4. they have not fulfilled obligations relating to the payment of social-security contributions or the payment of taxes in accordance with the legal provisions of the country in which they are established or with those of the country of the contracting authority;
5. they have been the subject of a judgment which has the force of res judicata for fraud, corruption, involvement in a criminal organisation or any other illegal activity detrimental to the ECB’s financial interests;
6. following another procurement procedure or grant award procedure financed by the ECB budget, they have been declared to be in serious breach of contract for failure to comply with their contractual obligations;
7. they are subject to a conflict of interests. There is a conflict of interests where the applicant and a person who is a player in the implementation of the ECB’s budget or an internal auditor share interests (including, for example, family, emotional life, political or national affinity and economic interests) which compromise the impartial and objective exercise of that person’s functions;
8. they commit misrepresentation in supplying the information required by the contracting authority.

You will be required to show that you are not in one or more of the situations listed above by providing a self statement signed by the person(s) empowered to represent the applicant party and sign the contract if your offer is successful or provide the following evidence:

a) In relation to items 1, 2 and 5 above, relevant extract(s) from the judicial record or, failing that, equivalent documentation issued by a judicial or administrative authority in the country where you are established or an affidavit stating the legal position of your company for the requested elements in each point. The extract(s) or equivalent documentation must be dated less than four months before the final date for submission of offers. Depending on the national legislation of the country in which you are established, these documents must relate to entities with legal personality and/or natural persons; in the latter case, they must relate to the person(s) empowered to represent the applicant party and sign the contract if your offer is successful.

b) In relation to items 3, 6, 7 and 8 above, an affidavit stating that you have not been guilty of grave professional misconduct, and you have not been declared to be in serious breach of a contract for failure to comply with your contractual obligations, and you are not subject to a conflict of interest and that you are supplying all the information required for the call for tenders in good faith and without misrepresentation. This document should be signed by the person(s) empowered to represent the applicant party and sign the contract if your offer is successful.

c) In relation to item 4 above, recent certificates issued by the competent social-security and tax authorities of the country where you are established. Where no such certificate is issued in that country, this can be replaced by a sworn or solemn statement made before a judicial or administrative authority, a notary or a qualified professional body in that country. The certificates or the statement provided must be dated less than four months before the final date for submission of offers.
Please note that the applicants that have provided the self statement, in case they will be invited to tender will have to provide the above listed documents (a-c) to prove the full compliance to the requirements listed in this section at points 1 to 8.

III.2.1.2 Economic and financial capacity - means of proof required:
Applicants will be assessed on their economic and financial capacity to perform the contract and will be asked to present the following documentation:
1. evidence of professional risk indemnity insurance;
2. bank certificate stating the company's financial situation;
3. balance sheets or extracts from balance sheets for at least the last two years for which accounts have been closed, or equivalent documentation (e.g. where company law in the country in which you are established does not require you to publish your balance sheet);
4. a statement of overall turnover and turnover concerning the services to be covered by the contract during the last three financial years;
5. when intending to rely on the capacities of a parent company, a written undertaking on the part of the parent company confirming that it will place the resources necessary for performance of the contract at its disposal.

III.2.1.3 Technical capacity - means of proof required:
Applicants will be assessed on their technical and professional capacity and experience to perform the contract and will be asked to present the following documentation:
1. references of similar consultancy services provided for public or private organisations over the past three years. This list should include contract reference, the period of execution, customer name and contact person within the customer organisations (name, position, role in the contract, telephone and e-mail address), value of the contract and one page description of the main items of the contract;
1.1. for lot 1 - details of experience with but not limited to: financial software packages such as Finance Kit, Swift Alliance, Finsoft, SAP; operating systems Solaris, AIX, Microsoft Windows; and application packages Oracle, Business Objects, Web Logic;
1.2. for lot 2 - details of experience with but not limited to: Marconi Enterprise ATM equipment, Marconi and CISCO routers as well as layer 2/3 switches; Checkpoint, Nokia and CISCO firewalls; management systems for Network (HP Openview) and for monitoring purposes (Concord eHealth), Siemens HiCom/HiPath voice communications equipment and related peripheral services; passive IT infrastructure management (ZIS) system.
2. Include a document (maximum two-pages) briefly explaining the specific relevance of the aforementioned references to this contract (service provided, service organisations, service level management, quality control).
3. Documents certifying the professional standing and technical capability. The applicant shall provide information about quality-assurance procedures and standards which prove his capacity and professionalism in performing his duties.
4. Description of the organisational structure of the company detailing departments and allocated number of staff in managerial and non-managerial position over the past three years.
5. Detailed description of the main department(s) responsible for the delivery of the services requested, including allocated number of staff in managerial and non-managerial position, specifying permanent and non-permanent staff, over the past three years. Indicate how the different departments contribute to a successful service provision.
6. Applicants must clearly indicate which parts of the requested consultancy services will be subcontracted.
7. If the applicant's employment contract provides for sanctions on its personnel in case of unauthorised disclosure of information by its personnel, or in case of malicious damage by its personnel, please provide full contractual clause.
9. For lot 1 and for lot 2, the applicant:
9.1. must prove that it has access to sufficient number of staff with relevant profiles to start the provision of the services on the scale indicated in paragraph II.2.1;
9.2. provide three (3) CVs for each profile containing complete information about their qualifications and professional experience - each CV should bear a number only instead of a name and a list should be included showing the correspondence between these numbers and actual names; the technical staff proposed for this contract must be permanent staff of the company and fluent in English. The applicants will be selected to participate in the current procedure on the basis of the following selection criteria:
1. economic and financial capacity to perform the contract,
2. experience of providing consultancy services of similar nature,
3. organisational structure,
4. staff and profiles with relevant capability to provide the services.
