III.1) Conditions relating to the contract

III.1.1) Deposits and guarantees required:
As set out in the tender documents which will be sent to the shortlisted candidates.

III.1.2) Main terms of financing and payment and/or reference to the relevant provisions:
As set out in the tender documents which will be sent to the shortlisted candidates.

III.1.3) Legal form to be taken by the grouping of suppliers, contractors or service providers to whom the contract is awarded:
Consortia: not permitted.
Grouping of contractors: not permitted.
Subcontracting: permitted. However, at least 80% of the services provided shall be performed by the applicant and subcontracting shall normally be used only for very specific and unusual skills or for unusual profiles. The potential contractors must both indicate clearly in their applications which parts of the requested services will be subcontracted and provide full details of how this subcontracting will be organised. Any change of subcontractors shall be subject to the approval of the ECB.

III.2) Conditions for participation:
Applicants shall draw up their application by completing a mandatory ad-hoc questionnaire, which will be provided upon request by the contact address mentioned in point I.3 above and whose format and instructions must be strictly observed. Any application which does not observe these provisions will automatically be rejected.

III.2.1) Information concerning the personal situation of the contractor, supplier or service provider and information and formalities necessary for the evaluation of the minimum economic, financial and technical capacity required:
Applicants should note that failure to send sufficient information about the points mentioned below (and requested in the standard questionnaire) may result in their application being rejected.

III.2.1.1) Legal position — means of proof required:
Applicants will be excluded from taking part in this tender procedure if:
1. they are bankrupt or being wound up, are having their affairs administered by the courts, have entered into an arrangement with creditors, have suspended business activities, are the subject of proceedings concerning those matters, or are in any analogous situation arising from a similar procedure provided for in national legislation or regulations;
2. they have been convicted of an offence concerning their professional conduct by a judgment which has the force of res judicata;
3. they have been guilty of grave professional misconduct proven by any means which the contracting authority can justify;
4. they have not fulfilled obligations relating to the payment of social security contributions or the payment of taxes in accordance with the legal provisions of the country in which they are established or with those of the country of the contracting authority;
5. they have been the subject of a judgment which has the force of res judicata for fraud, corruption, involvement in a criminal organisation or any other illegal activity detrimental to the ECB’s financial interests;
6. they have been declared, following another procurement procedure or an award procedure financed by the ECB’s budget, to be in serious breach of contract for failure to comply with their contractual obligations;
7. they are subject to a conflict of interests, which shall be deemed to the case if the applicant and a person involved in the implementation of the ECB’s budget or an internal auditor share interests which compromise the impartial and objective exercise of that person’s functions;
8. they commit misrepresentation in supplying the information required by the contracting authority.
Applicants will be required to show that they are not in 1 or more of the situations listed above by submitting a self-assessment signed by the person(s) empowered to represent the applicant party and sign the contract if the related bid is successful or by providing the following evidence:
a) in relation to items 1, 2 and 5 above, relevant extract(s) from the judicial record or, failing that, equivalent documentation issued by a judicial or administrative authority in the country where they are established or an affidavit stating the legal position of their company with respect to the requested elements in each point. The extract(s) or equivalent documentation must be dated less than 4 months before the final date for submission of offers. Depending on the national legislation of the country in which they are established, these documents must relate to entities with legal personality and/or natural persons; in the latter case, they must relate to the person(s) empowered to represent the applicant party and sign the contract if the related bid is successful;

b) in relation to items 3, 6, 7 and 8 above, an affidavit stating that they have not been guilty of grave professional misconduct, and that they have not been declared to be in serious breach of a contract for failure to comply with their contractual obligations, and that they are not subject to a conflict of interest and that they are supplying all the information required for the call for tenders in good faith and without misrepresentation. This document should be signed by the person(s) empowered to represent the applicant party and sign the contract if the related bid is successful; and

c) in relation to item 4 above, recent certificates issued by the competent social security and tax authorities of the country where they are established. Where no such certificate is issued in that country, this can be replaced by a sworn or solemn statement made before a judicial or administrative authority, a notary or a qualified professional body in that country.

Please note that applicants who have provided the self assessment shall be required, in the event that they are invited to tender a bid, to provide the documents listed under sub-paragraphs (a) to (c) above to prove their full compliance with the requirements listed under items 1 to 8 in this section.

III.2.1.2) Economic and financial capacity — means of proof required:

Applicants will be assessed on their economic and financial capacity to perform the contract and will be asked to present the following documentation:

1. evidence of professional risk indemnity insurance;
2. a bank certificate stating the company’s financial situation;
3. balance sheets or extracts from balance sheets for at least the last 2 years for which accounts have been closed, or equivalent documentation (e.g. where company law in the country in which the applicant is established does not require the balance sheet to be published);
4. a statement of overall turnover, and of turnover concerning the services to be covered by the contract, in the last 3 financial years (a minimum annual turnover of EUR 50 million is required).

III.2.1.3) Technical capacity — means of proof required

Applicants will be assessed on their technical and professional capacity and experience to perform the contract and will be asked to present the following documentation:

1. References of similar consultancy services (a minimum of 3 contract descriptions is required) provided preferably for public organisations over the past 3 years. This list should include the contract reference, the period of execution, the customer’s name and the contact person within the customer’s organisation (name, position, role in the contract, telephone number and e-mail address), the value of the contract and a description (1 page) of the main items of the contract;

details of experience required with, but not limited to:

— modelling and design tools: ARIS UML modelling;
— business intelligence: Business Objects tools;
— platforms: SUN servers (running Solaris), HP servers (running MS Windows 2000), desktops (running Windows XP); and — security services: PGP Encryption solutions.

2. A document (maximum of 2 pages) briefly explaining the specific relevance of the aforementioned references to this contract (service provided, service organisations, service level management, quality control).

3. Documents certifying the professional standing and technical capability. The applicant shall provide information about quality assurance procedures and development and operational standards which prove his capacity and professionalism in performing his duties.

4. Information about the transfer of full physical and intellectual property on works developed which proves the full renunciation of the applicant’s intellectual rights (No transfer of property will result in the rejection of the application) and the transfer of development ownership and know-how during the time and at the end of the contract.

5. A detailed description of the main department(s) responsible for the delivery of the services requested, including the allocated number of staff in managerial and non-managerial positions, specifying permanent and non-permanent staff, over the past 3 years. An indication as to how the different departments contribute to a successful provision of services.

6. A clear indication of which parts of the requested consultancy services will be subcontracted. (cf. point III 1.3).

7. The relevant contractual clause(s) in full if the applicant’s employment contracts provide for sanctions on its personnel in the case of an unauthorised disclosure of information by its personnel, or in the case of malicious damage by its personnel.

8. Proof that the applicant can provide a sufficient number of qualified staff with relevant profiles (at least 10 business analysts and 50 developers are required, while other profiles will be evaluated at the discretion of the ECB) to start the provision of the services on the scale indicated in point II.2.1.

9. An indication of the minimum response time for expressing interest in an offer (a maximum of 3 days is required) and the minimum required response time for providing the relevant individual CVs after a call for individual profiles (a maximum of 5 days is required), and the minimum response time for providing a quotation for a fixed price after a call for the development of a full package (a maximum of 10 days is required).

Further to the elimination criteria above-mentioned, the applicants will be selected to participate in the current procedure on the basis of the following selection criteria:

a) economic and financial capacity to perform the contract;
b) experience of providing consultancy services of a similar nature;
c) organisational structure;
d) efficiency in terms of time and quality with respect to providing the services; and
(e) procedures and tools for the transfer of know-how.
