II.2) Quantity or scope of the contract

II.2.1) Total quantity or scope:
The contract shall include the purchase of all required licenses and maintenance and support services for 5 years after initial installation for all components necessary for an integrated, comprehensive ERP software for the ECB. The contract may be renewed for successive periods and shall permit the licensing, maintenance and support of relevant extensions of functionality and such upgrades as are appropriate during the contracted periods.
The integrated, comprehensive ERP software must allow support of all business processes in the areas of:
- people management e.g. human capital management, manager and employee self-service, resource management, etc.,
- internal finance services e.g. administrative and financial asset accounting, accounts payable, ECB/ESCB financial and statistical reporting etc.,
- organisational services e.g. procurement, meetings and event management, travel services, etc.,
- corporate governance e.g. enterprise planning, budgeting and monitoring, etc.,
- infrastructure services e.g. facility management, physical security management, project and portfolio management, etc.
In addition, the applicant must demonstrate the technical comprehensiveness of the solution in the areas of cross-functional components such as data warehousing, collaboration and workflow tools, implementation and development tools, portals, application servers, business process management and application integration tools, etc.
It is intended that there will be 1500-2000 users of the system for informational and employee self-service type functionality. Of these, approximately 500 users will be expert users with the ERP solution being their main tool to support their daily functions.

II.2.2) Options:
The ECB may elect to use the consulting services of the ERP solution vendor to perform the initial installation and integration of the ERP software into the ECB infrastructure, including the installation documentation required by the ECB ERP competence centre to operate, maintain and develop the ERP solution.

II.3) Duration of the contract:
The proposed contract concerns the purchase of and the maintenance and support services for the ERP software for 5 years after the initial installation of the software. The ECB may opt for further renewals anticipating a use of the procured system for an undefined period.

Section III: Legal, economic, financial and technical information

III.1) Conditions relating to the contract

III.1.1) Deposits and guarantees required

III.1.2) Main terms of financing and payment and/or reference to the relevant provisions

III.1.3) Legal form to be taken by the grouping of suppliers, contractors or service providers to whom the contract is awarded:
The establishment of a temporary grouping must declare in writing that:
(i) in case of an order they will provide all services as a temporary grouping; and
(ii) that all the members will have joint and several liability for the performance of the contract.
The parts of the supplies and/or services that will be performed by the single companies shall be specified.
Furthermore, a representative shall be named, who is authorised to report to the ECB on behalf of the temporary grouping, to make legal statements and to accept unrestricted payments on behalf of the temporary grouping or each member of it.

III.2) Conditions for participation

III.2.1) Information concerning the personal situation of the contractor, supplier or service provider and information and formalities necessary for the evaluation of the minimum economic, financial and technical capacity required:
Potential applicants must have and demonstrate a high level of all required expertise and proven experience of comparable contracts.
Applications are invited from companies or organisations that can meet the minimum requirements (proof has to be supplied). If the non-compliance with any of the formal requirements is discovered subsequently, the ECB is entitled to exclude the concerned applicant from the tender procedure and to annul, if need be, the award of the contract.
