tenderers from participation in a tender procedure if they have been the subject of a judgment which has the force of ‘res judicata’ for fraud, corruption, money laundering, and involvement in a criminal organisation or any other illegal activity detrimental to the financial interests of the Union, of the ECB or of the NCBs. The ECB may exclude tenderers from participation at any time if:
(a) they are bankrupt or being wound up, are having their affairs administered by the courts, have entered into an arrangement with creditors, have suspended business activities, are the subject of proceedings concerning these matters, or are in any analogous situation arising from a similar procedure provided for in national legislation or regulations;
(b) they have been convicted of an offence concerning their professional conduct by a judgment which has the force of ‘res judicata’;
(c) they have been guilty of grave professional misconduct;
(d) they have not fulfilled obligations relating to the payment of social security contributions or the payment of taxes in accordance with the legal provisions of the country in which they reside or with those of the country of the contracting authority or those of the country where the contract is to be performed;
(e) they have been declared by a court or an arbitration tribunal to be in serious breach of contract for failure to comply with their contractual obligations following another tender procedure;
(f) their management, staff or agents are subject to a conflict of interests;
(g) they are guilty of misrepresentation in supplying the information required by the ECB;
(h) they contact other tenderers with the purpose of restraining competition.
Tenderers must certify that they are not in any of the situations listed above by signing the relevant documentation relating to this procedure and provide the evidence requested therein. In the case of groupings, all members must fulfil these conditions. If such circumstances arise in the course of the procedure, the tenderer concerned shall inform the ECB thereof without undue delay.

III.2.2) Economic and financial ability
Information and formalities necessary for evaluating if the requirements are met: Tenderers shall have the economic, financial, technical and professional capacity to perform the contract. As evidence tenderers shall submit:

VI.2) Information about European Union funds
The contract is related to a project and/or programme financed by European Union funds: no

VI.3) Additional information
0. This is a 2-phase procurement procedure; it foresees a separate pre-qualification phase and tendering phase, meaning that the pre-qualification phase and the tendering phase take place at 2 different times. In the current pre-qualification phase any interested economic operator (company, consortium) may request to take part by submitting an application, according to the requirements laid down in this contract notice published in the Official Journal of the EU and the call for applications published in the dedicated extranet site of the ECB (see VI.3)2. below). Application is possible with the usage of the call for applications form (Annex 1 to call for applications) and supporting documents (if any). After expiry of the deadline, the applications received will be assessed against the eligibility and selection criteria set out in this contract notice. The eligible and selected applicants will be invited to the tendering phase. The tendering phase will be conducted according to the requirements, deadlines and process steps described in the invitation to tender. The time limit for receipt of the tenders from pre-selected applicants is indicated in the invitation to tender. Regarding the structure and contents of the tender, please, find the details in the invitation to tender Chapter 2.

2. The documentation for this procurement procedure can be downloaded from an Internet platform. If you are interested in participating, please register via the Internet platform using the following Internet address:
https://www.ecb.europa.eu/secure/procurement/
User ID: 000095/IS/2015
Password: CF4649
After having registered, an e-mail will be sent to you with a new user name and password. The Internet address will remain the same. Please use the new user name and password to download the procurement documentation.

Should you experience any problems in accessing the Internet platform for registration and/or downloading the procurement documentation please do not hesitate to contact us at the following e-mail address:
procurement@ecb.europa.eu quoting the procurement number ‘PRO-000095’ and describing the problem experienced.

3. The tender procedure shall be open on equal terms to all natural or legal persons resident or located in the European Union and to all natural and legal persons resident or located in a country which has ratified the World Trade Organisation Agreement on Government Procurement or has concluded with the European Union a bilateral agreement on procurement under the conditions laid down in the said agreements.

4. The ECB shall exclude tenderers that are in one of the situations described in Article 24(4) of Decision of the European Central Bank of 3.7.2007 laying down the Rules on Procurement (ECB/2007/5) (e.g. conviction for fraud or corruption) or put on a blacklist in accordance with Article 24(7) of Decision of the European Central Bank of 3.7.2007 laying down the Rules on Procurement (ECB/2007/5). The ECB may exclude tenderers that are in one of the situations described in Article 24(5) of Decision of the European Central Bank of 3.7.2007 laying down the Rules on Procurement (ECB/2007/5) (e.g. insolvency; grave professional misconduct; misrepresentation).

6. The call for applications and the invitation to tender (ITT) describes how tenderers have to prepare and submit their offers (see Chapter II of the call for applications and Chapters II–III of ITT), describes the evaluation and award process (see Chapter III of call for applications and Chapter IV of ITT), explains how the ECB will inform the tenderers about the outcome of the procedure (see Chapter IV of the call for applications and Chapter V of ITT) and lays down general rules to be observed by all tenderers (Chapter V of call for applications). The tender specifications (Annex 1 to the ITT) describe the ECB’s functional and technical requirements. The questionnaire (Annex 3 to the ITT) is the basis of the technical offer that will help the tenderers to compile their technical offers and will help the ECB to assess the offers received. The tender specifications will form an integral part of the contract, together with the tender submitted by the successful tenderer. The draft contract (Annex 2 to the ITT) specifies the ECB’s legal terms and conditions for the performance of the contract. It will form the basis for the contractual relationship with the successful tenderer. The application form (Annex 1 to the call for applications) is a questionnaire to be completed and signed by applicants in order to assess their eligibility to participate in this procedure and their capacity to perform the contract. The confidentiality declaration form (Annex 2 to the call for applications) has to be completed, signed and submitted by applicants as part of their application; the submission of the completed and signed confidentiality declaration form is a prerequisite for selected candidates to receive the confidential part of the documentation. The price table (Annex 4 to the ITT) is a table that tenderers shall use to submit their financial offer. Annex 5 to the ITT is the ECB’s service level agreement, which specifies the service levels for the certain contractual services and it will form an integral part of the contractual relationship with the successful tenderer. Annex 6 to the ITT is the declaration form which has to be submitted as part of the technical offer. Annexes 7 to 12 to the ITT are supporting annexes which contain supplementary information to the ITT.
