II.2.4) Description of the procurement:
Common services for both health and LTC claims administration services:
— The services shall be delivered by experienced and professionally qualified account management team, supported by a 365-day/24-hour multilingual service helpline, with English as the leading language.
— The administrator shall provide case management (dedicated large claims management), a dedicated complaints management system, cost containment measures, medical advice and management information shall be offered to the ECB as client according to quality management standards.
— The administrator shall process claims in its own IT systems in any language presented, insured persons do not need to translate invoices and/or medical documentation from service providers.
— The administrator shall also provide electronic claim filing (including Internet-based claim settlement as a minimum), management and reporting tools.
— The administrator shall provide a dedicated centre of expertise which can reply to queries (min. by telephone and by e-mail, regular local consultation hours at the seat of the ECB in Frankfurt-on-Main desired) from the members of the ECB insurance scheme on differences between coverage of the ECB’s insurance scheme and of the major national schemes in Europe (advice shall encompass minimum questions regarding health insurance and long-term care insurance including advice on adequate local (long-term) care facilities and (medical) providers).
— The administrator shall provide membership administration on the basis of data reported by the ECB.
— The administrator shall cooperate with the ECB in case of knowledge or well-founded suspicion that any insurance benefits are fraudulently obtained.
— The administrator shall recover unwarranted payments from insured members or beneficiaries.
— The administrator shall provide services according to agreed service levels and by application of quality management principles. The services shall not be provided for individual health insurance (see lot 1, c)) for which the insurer shall provide the relevant claim administration.

— The administrator shall settle claims/pay benefits in euro free of charge to the insured member within the European Union and the United States.

— The administrator shall be able to review the medical condition of insured persons on a worldwide basis with the aim to ensure eligibility to payment of LTC insurance benefits and/or medical claims.

— Close cooperation with an insurer (see lot 1) is necessary.

Claims administration for health insurance:
— The services shall comprise processing, verification, authorisation and payment (reimbursement of claims and direct settlement of invoices) of healthcare-related expenditures incurred by insured persons.

— The administrator shall offer disease management programmes.

— The administrator shall establish and maintain a network of preferred service providers in the Rhine-Main area and in the Greater Washington DC area.

Claims administration for LTC insurance:
— The administrator shall evaluate LTC cases, regularly review existing cases and perform follow-up actions.

— The administrator shall identify on the basis of the documents provided, if there is a dependency on long-term care and if so to which level.

— The administrator shall perform the medical underwriting of dependants at the time of the initial request for insurance cover and following any period of cessation of coverage (apart for those dependants insured under the ECB medical plan when LTC staff rules enter into force).
