II.2.4) Description of the procurement:
The ECB is seeking a contractor who can provide storage for standard and non-standard goods. The service provider shall store, handle and maintain standard goods such as stationery, paper documents, office supplies, ECB branded merchandise, gifts and giveaways, furniture parts, etc. and non-standard goods and equipment such as fragile items, architectural models, glass and constructions equipment, furniture parts. The handling of these non-standard goods might require special equipment (e.g. electro lifter for heavy weight items and oversized goods) as some of these goods are very heavy i.e. up to 2–3 tons.
The supplier shall also be able to maintain stock and delivery to the ECB and return deliveries to other ECB suppliers/contractors whenever necessary and therefore is expected to act as an interface with other ECB suppliers. ECB’s provider for the standard goods shall deliver the goods directly to storage warehouse of the service provider. Such goods are then delivered by the storage warehouse provider to the ECB’s logistics centre or an alternative location in the Rhine-Main area upon request by the ECB.
An inventory report on the current status of the standard goods will be handed out to the new provider at the start of the contract. During the term of the contract, the service provider shall maintain the inventory and provide regular reporting to the ECB on the inventory status.
The approximate required storage space is 450–500 square meters. Approximately 3–5 deliveries shall take place monthly, however subject to change.
