Internet address: https://www.ecb.europa.eu/secure/procurement/.
User name: 002952/A/2017/ITT.
Password: F61597.
After you have registered, an e-mail will be sent to you with a new user name and password. Use the new user name and password to download the procurement documentation from the above URL internet address. However, your mere registration and downloading the procurement documents does not constitute a tender. You must submit your tender in hard copy version to the ECB, on time, in the format requested and including the content as further instructed in the tender documentation.
Should you experience any problems in accessing the Internet platform for registration and/or downloading the documentation, please do not hesitate to contact the ECB under the following e-mail address: procurement@ecb.europa.eu quoting the procurement number and the problem experienced.
The ECB shall endeavour to answer all queries concerning access as quickly as possible but cannot guarantee a minimum time response. The ECB shall not be bound to reply to queries received less than 7 calendar days before the time-limit for the submission of tenders.
The procurement procedure shall be open on equal terms to all natural or legal persons resident or located in the European Union and to all natural and legal persons resident or located in a country which has ratified the World Trade Organisation Agreement on Government Procurement or has concluded with the European Union a bilateral agreement on procurement under the conditions laid down in the said agreements.
During the procurement procedure, Tenderers shall not contact any other ECB staff members or organisations/persons working for the ECB with regard to this tender procedure than the person indicated in Section I.1). Tenderers shall also not contact potential competitors unless they intend to form a temporary grouping with them or to involve them as subcontractors. Any violation of this communication rule may lead to the exclusion of the Tenderer in question.
