Internet address(es): General address of the contracting authority (URL): www.ecb.europa.eu

Further information can be obtained from:
the above-mentioned contact point(s).

Specifications and additional documents (including documents for competitive dialogue and a dynamic purchasing system) can be obtained from:
the above-mentioned contact point(s).

Tenders or requests to participate must be sent to:
the above-mentioned contact point(s).

I.5) Type of the contracting authority and main activity or activities:
European institution/agency or international organisation.
The contracting authority is purchasing on behalf of other contracting authorities: no.

Section II: Object of the contract

II.1) Description

II.1.1) Title attributed to the contract by the contracting authority:
Crisis management and crisis communication services.

II.1.2) Type of contract and location of works, place of delivery or of performance:
Services.
Service category No 11.
Main place of performance:
ECB; D-Frankfurt-on-Main.
NUTS code: DE712.

II.1.3) The notice involves:
The establishment of a framework agreement.

II.1.4) Information on framework agreement:
Framework agreement with a single operator — if all lots are awarded to 1 provider.
Duration of the framework agreement: 4 years, possibly including up to 4 annual renewals.
Justification for a framework agreement the duration of which exceeds 4 years:
need for continuation of supplier in view of the need for consistency and confidentiality of the subject.

II.1.5) Short description of the contract or purchase(s):
The successful contractor's(s') will be related to further development of the existing business continuity programme, in particular with regard:
lot 1: crisis management manual;
lot 2: crisis communication manual;
lot 3: crisis management training programme;
lot 4: crisis communication training programme.

Tenderers may apply for 1, several or all of the lots. The ECB prefers in principle to award a maximum of 2 contracts (1 for lots 1 and 3 and another contract for lots 2 and 4). However, this is not a precondition and the ECB will seek the best offers in terms of value for money. Therefore, a maximum of 4 contracts, 1 per lot, could be possible.

II.1.6) Common procurement vocabulary (CPV):
74140000, 74141700, 74142000.

II.1.7) Contract covered by the Government Procurement Agreement (GPA):
Yes.

II.1.8) Division into lots:
Tenders should be submitted for 1 or more lots.

II.1.9) Variants will be accepted:
No.

II.2) Quantity or scope of the contract

II.2.1) Total quantity or scope:
A minimum of 3 seminars (trainings) per year are in principle foreseen both for crisis communication and crisis management.

II.2.2) Options:
No.

Number of possible renewals: 4 for range: of 1 year each.

II.3) Duration of the contract or time-limit for completion:
40 months from the award of the contract.

Section III: Legal, economic, financial and technical information

III.1) Conditions relating to the contract

III.1.1) Deposits and guarantees required:
No deposit is required but where applicable, the successful tenderer (or, in the case of a successful consortium bid, each member of the consortium) may be required to provide a parent-company guarantee.

III.1.2) Main financing conditions and payment arrangements and/or reference to the relevant provisions regulating them:
Method of payment will be in accordance with the terms and conditions of the draft contract which will be annexed to the tender specification (Invitation to Tender –ITT).

III.1.3) Legal form to be taken by the grouping of economic operators to whom the contract is to be awarded:
Subcontracting is permitted. Tenderers must state clearly in their bid which parts will be subcontracted. The names of the subcontracting companies must be clearly stated in the bid, and these companies must comply with similar exclusion criteria as the tenderers.

III.1.4) Other particular conditions to which the performance of the contract is subject:
Yes.

the ECB prefers in principle offers from companies/individuals with EU secrecy certification or similar.

III.2) Conditions for participation
III.2.1) Personal situation of economic operators, including requirements relating to enrolment on professional or trade registers:

Information and formalities necessary for evaluating if requirements are met:

candidates wishing to bid must provide information (including that indicated below) by requesting the ECB’s application form from the address in I.1 and submitting it complete to the ECB by the date in IV.3.4.

This applies also in the case of subcontracting in that the curricula vitae of possible subcontracted consultants shall be provided;
(c) Consulting and training competencies: evidence of candidates’ consulting and training competencies, and the quality-assurance measures they have adopted for the type of services at stake;
(d) Methodologies: applicants shall demonstrate having swift access to best practices in the subjects at stake. They will submit an outline description of the methodologies and models of best practice in crisis management/communication to be drawn upon during the delivery of the contract;
(e) Experience in providing similar services to institutions comparable to the ECB: list of the principal services supplied over the past 3 years which were similar to those required. Applicants shall specify, for each contract mentioned, the values, dates and names and particulars of the public or private recipients involved. Furthermore, for the 3 principal contracts carried out, candidates must provide detailed information on the nature of said services and the quantity thereof. In particular, applicants shall inform at least about achievements in terms of assessment of systems and procedures in place at the start of assignments, leading to enhancements and or new, improved procedures/systems. Should the applicant be bound by confidentiality agreements with third parties it must provide all the information possible as well as proof or commitment of their accuracy;
(f) language skills: staff providing the services must have a very good command of English with proven drafting ability;
(g) pricing model: applicants are invited to describe their pricing model for each of the lots. This request is for information purposes and will not be part of the qualifying and/or selection criteria.
