

Country profile for Greece

The TARGET2 single shared platform (SSP) offers several options to a central bank and its banking community. The country profile offers a standardised summary of the options utilised by the relevant central bank.

For any further information, please contact the central bank in question. Information on all SSP components is provided in the current version of the UDFS.

Contact details
Central Bank	Bank of Greece

1. Accounting system
1.1 Which accounting system(s) will be used?	Payments Module and Proprietary Home Accounting Module
1.2 If Proprietary Home Accounting is indicated, which features are offered by the CB in the Information and Control Module? (multiple selections possible)	<input type="checkbox"/> Balance information <input type="checkbox"/> Liquidity transfer <input type="checkbox"/> Standing order
1.3 If Proprietary Home Accounting is indicated, is liquidity available in PM for night-time settlement? If not, when is it available? XX:XX	No

2. Reserve management
2.1 Which reserve management tool is used?	Proprietary Reserve Management module (PRM)
2.2 From which account minimum reserves are calculated? (multiple selections possible) Additional information: PHA accounts are only used by indirect participants	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Payments Module <input type="checkbox"/> Home Accounting Module <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Proprietary Home Accounting

3. Standing facilities
3.1 Which standing facilities tool is used?	SFM + PSF

3.2 Which account is used for standing facilities? (multiple selections possible) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> How this process is initiated (for those CBs using PSF+PHA)¹? For indirect participants the PHA account is used and the process is initiated by means of: - MT202 messages (overnight deposit) and – request via FAX (marginal lending on request) 	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Payments Module <input type="checkbox"/> Home Accounting Module <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Proprietary Home Accounting (only if PSF is used)
3.3 If PSF is indicated, is liquidity available for AS night-time settlement starting at 7:30 pm? Additional information: 32T	No

4. Intraday credit
4.1 What are the techniques used for granting the intraday credit?	Pledge
4.2 For pledge: Where is the credit line kept and where do intraday credit transactions take place? Additional information: 32T	Payments Module
4.3 For repo: Where do intraday credit transactions take place? Additional information: 32T	n/a

5. Other Monetary Policy Operations
5.1 Where do other monetary policy operations (e.g. tender) take place²? Additional information: 32T	Payments Module

6. Cash withdrawals
6.1 Where do the cash related transactions take place³? Which message format is used for this purpose? Additional information: MT204 by Central Bank is also used. For indirect participants cash withdrawals can take place also on the PHA account	Payments Module MT202 by participant

¹ For the SFM, the process can only be initiated via the ICM.

² Combination of accounts is not possible in this case

³ Combination of accounts is not possible in this case

7. Other TARGET2 payments
7.1 Where will the following domestic business cases⁴ take place? Name of Business Case 32T 32T 32T Additional information: 32T	Account in

⁴ Only not listed yet business cases of domestic importance, which might be of interest for participants, should be listed (for example POS transfers, cheque transactions, etc.)