1	Annex I	Table 3	Field 5	17	Clarification	Financial transactions are sometimes subject to retrospective correction or cancellation. The time lag might amount up to six months. We would like to suggest including clarification as to which extent such corrections and cancellations should be reported in retrospect, i.e. after the report for that month has already been submitted once.	Providing clarification on that matter might reduce uncertainty regarding implementation of the updated requirements.	Schubert, Johanna	Publish
